COURSE TITLE:	PISTOL RED DOT COURSE
OVERVIEW:	A sixteen-hour course designed to allow students to transition from an iron-sighted pistol to a pistol mounted red dot. Students will mount their optics per the manufacturers specifications. Students will practice (live fire) presentation, optic failure drills, malfunction clearance, single hand manipulations and shooting on the move. This course will satisfy the sixteen-hour requirement for a department member to carry a pistol red dot optic on and off duty.
PREREQUISITE:	Must be currently employed by a law enforcement or public safety agency. Students must also possess their own weapon, optic and all ancillary equipment. If a student does not have their optic mounted prior to the course they must bring the mounting hardware for their optic which includes: all plates, screws, and adjustment tools needed for their optic. Students can arrange with range staff to have their optic mounted prior to the course.
